Inclusive and sustainable economic growth. Challenges, measures and solutions

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Faculty of Economic Sciences and Business Administration within Transilvania University of Brasov, in collaboration with the Institute for Economic Forecasting of the Romanian Academy cordially invites you to submit research papers for presentation and discussions at the seventh edition of the International Conference „Inclusive and sustainable economic growth. Challenges, measures and solutions” (ISEG 2024).

The conference will be hosted by Transilvania University of Brasov and will be held 11 October 2024, in an online format.

The meeting will be an excellent opportunity for academics, researchers and doctoral students to present new research results and to discuss challenging issues on the topics of conference. The aim of this new series of conferences is to gather research interests and to stimulate collaborative research around actual macro- and microeconomic topics (as suggested below).

Topics:

We are inviting submissions of both empirical and theoretical work that fits into the conference topics. Being a multi- and interdisciplinary conference, we encourage submission of papers in the following broad research areas: economics, finance, marketing and management. Examples of suitable topics:

- ✓ Economic growth and convergence perspectives in the European Union: Measurement methods and new empirical evidence
- ✓ Public and Private Finance Sustainability in the Context of Current Economic Challenges
- ✓ Issues and challenges in the Romanian higher education
- ✓ Challenges and prospects of economic growth in South Eastern Europe
- ✓ New inequalities, multidimensionality and growth pro-poorness
- ✓ Business for sustainable development
- ✓ New approaches in marketing and management

Submission

Deadline for abstract submission is 4th of October 2024, and authors of accepted abstracts will be informed by the 7th of October 2024.

Please submit your abstracts here: monica.szeles@unitbv.ro

Publication opportunities

The official conference languages are English and Romanian. A blind review process apply to all submissions. During the conference, one discussant will be assigned to each paper.

After presentation, conference papers can be submitted to one of the conference affiliated journals, subject to a review, as well as to the agreement and decision of editors.
